

Office of the UN Resident Coordinator in Albania

Ms Fiona McCluney

UN Resident Coordinator in Albania

As the designated representative of the Secretary-General, the Resident Coordinator (RC) leads the work of the UN system - currently with 17 active UN Agencies in Albania - in the implementation of the UN Programme of Cooperation for Sustainable Development 2017-2021, promoting EU integration and the acceleration of Agenda 2030. The RC leads the UN Country Team in consultation with the host Government, to agree and define on the UN's strategic response to country's priorities. On behalf of the UN system, the RC forges strategic partnerships with national and local authorities, development partners, civil society and private sector actors, among others, in pursuit of the Programme of Cooperation, Agenda 2030, the full realization of human rights, and leaving no one behind.
